The Michigan Girls Basketball Report (MGBR) is offering several travel teams out of Central/Northern Michigan for 2010. MGBR was created to offer several services to girls basketball players throughout the state. These include: a free player recruiting profile for college coaches to view at www.mgbr.org, travel teams, a free state-wide scouting service and events that deliver a platform for athletes to be seen by college coaches from all levels.

Student-athletes who participate on these teams will gain exposure to hundreds of college coaches and attend in-state / out of state basketball events. Players also must have the desire to play college basketball at one of the following levels: Division 1, 2, 3, NAIA or Junior College.

To attend tryouts players must have a GPA above a 2.5 and be able to commit to the travel schedule, including practices. Players planning on attending tryouts should RSVP to MGBR at office@mgbr.org and provide your name, grade, position, height, phone and high school in the email.

To view the spring and summer schedule go to:

For more general information go to www.mgbr.org

Players who do not make a MGBR Elite team can also tryout for the Central Basketball Club teams on the same day and time.
